

Michael Tritthart – Biography

Michael Tritthart is based out of North Texas and has more than twenty years of experience in conducting educational workshops and small business training. He offers training, marketing tips, and consultation designed to improve your business. Classes are taught in a user-friendly manner that is accessible to both wary computer users and experts.

He earned his BA in Education at the University of Central Oklahoma and obtained his Masters of Education degree from the University of North Texas in 2000. Michael began training agents in 2001 all around the Dallas Ft. Worth real estate market. In 2004, he joined a local real estate market center and provided training and tech support. In 2007, he created his own proprietary training company and began to travel the United States and Canada; providing quality workshops to all who attend. He also began to build his design services team.

Michael comes from a successful real estate family and has trained thousands of Realtors® since 2001. The training team and Michaeltritthart.com website is owned and operated by MTrittt INC. The social media/website design team is owned and operated by MTJK INC.

- Head Coach of the Master Networks five plus one Mastery Coaching program
- Master Networks Leadership Team – Director of Coaching
- International Technology Instructor
- Certified by many states to teach multiple Continuing Education Courses

His design team has enhanced over 90,000 real estate websites and social media sites!