

NAMAR EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Betty Romig was the first Executive Officer of the Association and retired after 34 Years of Service. Betty began her career with NAMAR in 1973 when there were 334 members. When she had retired, NAMAR had grown to the second largest Real Estate Board in the State of Georgia with over 5000 active members.

Betty completed Professional Standards in 1987. She was presented numerous awards including the President's Award in 1990 and Georgia CRS AE of the Year in 2003. In 1983, Betty was inducted into the honorary fraternity of Omega Tau Rho which was created by the National Association of REALTORS® in 1950. It is awarded by state and local associations to members showing exemplary dedication and service.

Tom O'Rourke was a Vice President with the Miss America Organization and worked with volunteers across the country for more than 12 years. He left the Organization in 2002 and moved to Atlanta, Georgia as the Director of Corporate Marketing for Aaron Rents. After an Aaron's reorganization, Tom worked for the Greater Atlanta Home Builders Association where he achieved the award for the #1 Sales and Marketing Council in the United States. Tom and his wife Kelly live in Peachtree Corners, Georgia. They have three grown children (Patti, Heather and Brian) and 3 grandchildren (Jake, Lelia and Sam).

Tom completed his Professional Standards in 2008. He has received numerous awards including the President's Award in 2007 and the Georgia CRS AE of the Year in 2009. Today, Tom is not only the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Vice President of NAMAR but also the I85North Board of REALTORS®. Additionally, he serves as the Executive Administrator for the Gwinnett County Board of REALTORS® Scholarship Foundation and the Certified Residential Specialists of Georgia.
